

Aaron L. Morris

Senior Vice President Finance

Aaron Morris serves as Senior Vice President of Finance at Phillips Edison & Company, where he leads the Finance, Capital Markets, and Risk Management functions. Since joining the company in 2009, he has held several leadership roles across accounting, financial reporting, and corporate finance, including Vice President of Accounting and Vice President of Finance. With over 20 years of experience in accounting and finance, Aaron has played a key role in driving strategic financial initiatives, enhancing operational efficiency, and supporting the company's growth.

Prior to joining Phillips Edison, Aaron was a Senior Auditor at Deloitte and began his career as a Staff Accountant at Paycor, Inc.

He is a Certified Public Accountant and holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from Harding University and an MBA in Finance from Xavier University.

PHILLIPS EDISON & COMPANY®