

Kimberly A. Green

Senior Vice President Investor Relations

Kimberly has served as our Head of Investor Relations since June 2022. She is responsible for leading PECO's investor relations strategy. Kimberly has over 15 years of experience in investor relations, strategic and financial communications, and relationship management, including 10 years in the commercial real estate industry.

Before joining Phillips Edison, Kimberly led investor relations at Washington Prime Group (previously WP Glimcher and Glimcher Realty Trust). Prior to Washington Prime Group, she held various investor relations and strategic communications positions at The Scotts Miracle-Gro Company and The Wendy's Company.

Kimberly began her career as a real estate analyst for Retail Ventures, Inc., supporting the DSW, Filene's Basement, Value City Department Stores and Schottenstein's retail brands.

Kimberly serves on the board for PECO NOW (Networking Opportunities for Women), the Company's initiative focused on providing leadership opportunities for women in the workplace. She earned a bachelor's degree from Capital University.

PHILLIPS EDISON & COMPANY®